Industry Comments

- David Berman, President of the Music Division at Disney Studios, the Buena Vista Music Group, confirms Mr. Hope's critical role on the film's music score, which resulted in a coveted Golden Globe nomination. He states:

"His unique interpretation of the string arrangements to support Ms. Lisa Gerrard's vocal sonorities was exciting and enchanting. His talents are unsurpassed and he is undoubtedly one of the most gifted composers in the industry today."

- Sam A. Thompson, Vice President of Business and Legal Affairs at 143, a joint venture with Time Warner Company which releases records through the Warner label and has released major recording artists such as the platinum selling, Beth Hart, states:

"I believe strongly in Ciaran's talent as a composer and producer and furthermore I believe that his unique musical vision is paving the way to a whole new genre of music composition and will continue to be highly influential to a generation of musicians in the industry."

- Joel C. High, Director and Head of the Music Department for Trimark Pictures, states:

"Ciaran's composition adds depth and dimension to any feature film projects. Quite simply, his work is nothing short of extraordinary."

- Denny Diante, President and CEO of Pipeline Music in Los Angeles, who has produced 19 Gold Albums and 6 Multi-Platinum Albums, received 3 Grammys, a Cable Ace Award, an Academy Award nomination, and a Golden Globe Award for production with such distinguished artists as Barbara Streisand, B.B. King, Elton John, Grateful Dead, Bobby Brown, Neil Diamond, Boston, Johnny Mathis, T.G. Sheppard, and Ike & Tina Turner, calls Mr. Hope "one of the most extraordinary talents in the music industry." He further states:

"I am well aware of his compositions such as "The Persistence of Memory", "The Disintegration of the Persistence of Memory" or "Diptych" which have garnered incredible international acclaim and have been performed extensively around the world, in such places as The Czech Republic, Belgium, Bulgaria, Spain, Australia, Ireland, Brazil, and here in the USA. His compositions espouse a light, catchy, contemporary tonal quality intertwined with a uniquely Irish feel."

- Richard A. Schulenberg, an Entertainment Attorney, film producer, former General Counsel of Paramount Picture's Music Division, as well as Director of Business Affairs for CBS Records, states:

"He is a man of innumerable talents - an incredibly gifted composer, an innovative producer and a dynamic performer as well. He is a truly charismatic and gifted musician, which is one of the reasons I chose to represent him."

- Christine Luethje, who has worked as a music editor for numerous high-profile feature films including "Moulin Rouge" and prominent TV series such as "The Net" states:

"He has consistently demonstrated a level of maturity, musical intensity, and ability to capture and convey a range of emotions through music, seldom seen in composers his age."
